Ralph E. Hager, a merchant of Guthrie, Friday filed in the United States district court here, a petition of voluntary bankruptcy. Hager gives his indebtedness as $2,272.87 and his assets as $4,627.00.

Among the 300 cases appealed from the city court to the county court which will come up next Thursday, is the appeal of Rev. H. F. Van Horn, who was fined $10 for running over a boy while driving his car. The boy was taken, according to attorneys, to show that the minister was not guilty of driving recklessly.

The jury in District Judge Hayson's court, who heard the suit of George W.
Gilbert against Patrolman Louis H.
Youngblood of the city police force, brought in a verdict for the defendant Thursday noon. Gilbert sued for $1,000 claiming that the officer had miscre-ated him and accused him of being a bootlegger.
